

NOAC 2012

National Order of the Arrow Conference

Michigan State University * East Lansing MI * July 29 - August 5, 2012

The Order Of The Arrow National Conference is held every three years at a major University. It features morning training sessions in extensive subject fields including computers, web site design, leadership, regalia, Indian dance, ceremonies, lodge interactions, lodge activities and more. Afternoons are reserved for competitions in ceremonies, Indian dance, sports (volleyball, basketball, swimming, track and field, lip sync, and many others), as well as free time, fellowship and interacting with Arrowmen from all over the world. Evenings feature outstanding arena shows.

Over 7000 Arrowmen from around the country are anticipated to attend in 2012. Meals are served in University cafeterias and sleeping accommodations are in dorm rooms. Founders Day on Wednesday is a carnival-like atmosphere with each Lodge having a booth with giveaways, food, etc. Fellowship, training and fun are the principles of NOAC.

The cost for 2012 is $700 for youth and $850 for adults, which includes travel, hotel the night of arrival, conference fees, conference patches and tee shirts. Youth subsidies can be were provided in help offset the costs. If you start now, Oct 2011, that's only $100 per month, final payment due June 30, 2012

If you are an adult, a deposit does not guarantee a position in the contingent. There are only a limited number of adult slots.
